HVAB announces hiring of Chief Administrative Officer

State College, PA, Oct. 4, 2022 – The Happy Valley Adventure Bureau (HVAB) recently announced the hiring of Josiah Jones as Chief Administrative Officer.

Jones will concentrate predominantly on human resources policy and processes, as well as budget and contract management. He will also serve as a liaison to HVAB legal, financial, insurance and medical providers.

Jones has lived and worked in the Moshannon Valley area almost all of his life. Prior to joining the HVAB, he served as the Executive and Marketing Director for the Clearfield County Recreation & Tourism Authority, a.k.a. Visit Clearfield County. Jones also has public relations and business development experience in the behavioral health field.

“The HVAB is pleased to welcome Josiah to the team,” said HVAB President and CEO Fritz Smith. “His tourism background and understanding of the nuances of the industry, along with his business experience, will serve the organization well as we continue to expand our efforts to grow and strengthen the Happy Valley, Pennsylvania tourism economy.”

Jones resides in Morrisdale with his wife, Dana, and son, Silas, where he serves as Morris Township Supervisor. Josiah and his family are active members at the Summit Hill United Methodist Church in Morrisdale.
